Monday, November 30, 7:00
(117 min., 18A)

John M. Cuelenaere
Public Library
125 12 Street East

In mid-1980s Texas, electrician Ron Woodroof (Matthew McConaughey) is stunned to learn that he has AIDS. Though told that he has just 30 days left to live, Woodroof refuses to give in to despair. He seeks out alternative therapies and smuggles unapproved drugs into the U.S. from wherever he can find them. Woodroof joins forces with a fellow AIDS patient (Jared Leto) and begins selling the treatments to the growing number of people who can't wait for the medical establishment to save them.

Everyone is welcome to attend this free event.
Co-sponsored by Prince Albert Parkland Health Region.
